

Washington Hospital's 14th Annual

THINK PINK

In-Person Event

Thursday October 13, 2022
5 p.m. – 7 p.m.

Tent Atrium, Washington West
2500 Mowry Ave, Fremont

Wear pink and join us for our annual breast health awareness event. Visit our interactive booths and attend informative lectures focused on breast health education.

Register at whhs.com/events or call 800.963.7070

Experts will speak on the latest breast cancer treatment options available at Washington Hospital and how complementary therapies help improve physical and emotional well-being during and after cancer treatment.

Masks are required. Light refreshments will be served.

5 – 6 p.m.: Health Fair & Information Booths

6 – 7 p.m.: Program

- Emceed by: Victoria Leiphart, MD, FACOG, Gynecologist, Washington Township Medical Foundation
- William Dugoni Jr., MD, General Surgeon, Washington Township Medical Foundation, Medical Director, Washington Women's Center
- Jesse Alexander, MD, Radiation Oncologist, Washington Radiation Oncology Center
- Bogdan Eftimie, MD, Hematologist-Oncologist, Medical Director, UCSF – Washington Cancer Center
- Andrea Barker, MSW, LCSW, Outpatient Social Worker – Oncology, UCSF – Washington Cancer Center